

ARIZONA DOWNS

Race #1

3-6-5 #3 King Parker 8-1 ML woke up in last and should be able to in a much better position turning for home as he had much to do last time out yet managed a runner up.

Race #2

6-7-5 #6 Desert black 7-2 ML won on the stretchout last time and now could lead this field a very long way again. Comes off a win and at this level could repeat with anything near last try.

Race #3

5-4-6 #5 Ms Sally 7-2 ML was a big upsetter in last but that may have been no fluke. Gets another great pace scenario and could be along in time with another move forward.

Race #4

6-7-5 #6 Indy Moon 12-1 ML cuts back after running even in a route last time. Wide every step of the way is not ideal and now could work out a much better trip from off the pace and the shorter distance could mean an enhanced late kick.

Race #5

7-6-1 #7 Devon's Choice 5-2 ML Was compromised last time with a pace duel and other speed, which does not seem to be the case today, outside draw and should reverse the decision last time out against the winner who is back in this field.

Race #6

7-3-8 #7 Shesaheatwave 9-2 ML did not run well first time over this track, but that was against much better and now the class drop and race over the surface means now or never time at better odds.

Race #7

1-2-3 #1 South Fresno 3-1 ML has gotten good and when this barn gets them feeling well the sky is the limit. Follow him right up the ladder and is a single for me in all multi-race wagers.

Race #8

8-2-3 #8 Botero 8-1 ML badly needed that last start and could move forward off latest and notice still not entered for a tag which means the connections like him and do not want to lose him, should factor from the bell and sit just off the pace and pounce.

Race #9

2-7-4 #2 Stephen James Even Money should finally break through with a maiden win and first of career, however the chances are getting to stack up and would not talk you off trying to beat him as well, formidable favorite in last and finale.
