

ARIZONA DOWNS

---

Race #1

9-8-5 #9 Go Clubbing 15-1 ML has been well backed in every start and now finally gets off the inside post with a great draw here. Chance for an upset with high % trainer that has yet to strike at current meet.

Race #2

2-3-4 #2 Fabulous Daze 10-1 ML has been first or second in 8-22 starts and that has been against better. Just kind of ran evenly last time, but time off and a clean start could mean a big difference here at big odds.

Race #3

1-5-4 #1 Dimeria 5-1 ML is the tepid pick on top but the reasoning makes sense. Vergara rode last time and he was never a factor but Daniel comes back to ride so the drop made sense and now we may see a better effort at better odds.

Race #4

2-5-6 #2 Keanna7-2 ML put it all together last time but needs to improve here and just might. Confidence is sky high and a move forward could be in the cards today, it will need to be.

Race #5

1-5-2 #1 Moonlight Graham 8-5 ML is the lowest priced selection here but also the most likely winner, pick 6, pick 5 pick 4 single in my book.

Race #6

2-1-4 #2 Twirly Girl 6-1 ML has not shown much in three starts on better circuit, so the change in scenery may do her some good. Do not know if she can run but if she can she will show it here.

Race #7

7-4-1 #7 Georgian Road 9-2 ML was awesome last out and may need to do better here but love the draw and there is not much early pace signed on so he can sit a nice trip from an outside post on or near the lead.

Race #8

4-6-8 #4 Smiling Matt 5-1 ML has not won in quite some time, but love that he is progressing form wise and on the cutback and third start off the layoff should show his best here in the finale.
